

Parent/Staff Advisory Council

The purpose of the Special Education Parent/Staff Advisory Council is to act as an advisory body to the district through the Director of Special Services on behalf of students receiving special education services. The Parent/Staff Advisory Council will work towards the districts mission of providing a high-quality educational experience for all learners as it applies to students with special needs and their families.